

09.03.2015

PRESS RELEASE

International Women's Day was observed at Yenepoya Medical College hospital

An awareness raising programme was jointly conducted today on on 9th March 2015 by the departments of MSW and OBG as part of International Women's day falls on 8th March at Yenepoya Medical College Hospital. Dr Mohammed Amin Vani, Chief Operating Officer inaugurated the programme. In his speech he highlighted and appreciated the contributions of women in the society. He emphasized the need for creating opportunities for women to be educated, employed and to exercise their rights which are pre-requisites of their empowerment. He called for making right kind of choices in life for the betterment of self, family and society.

Mrs Irene Veigas, Lecturer, Department of MSW, spoke on the significance of the day and responsibilities of women in realising the theme of the year 'Empowering women, Empowering the Humanity. Picture it'. Dr Sadiquinnissa, Assc.Professor of OBG, Dr.Sunita Saldanha, Officer Hospital Operations, Mrs Bhanumathy Nursing Superintendent and Mr Praveen hospital Superintendent were present on the dias. Dr Mohammed Guthigar, HOD i/c Dept.of MSW welcomed and Dr Gladys Colaco, Asst.Professor,Deprt.of MSW proposed a vote of thanks. With an objective of creating awareness on women rights students of MSW course demonstrated a skit to highlight the rights of women.

Ms. Ayesath Shahanaz , student of MSW compeered the programme.

Chief Operating Officer

