

REPORT LAMP LIGHTING

The lamp lighting ceremony for the 16th Batch of B.Sc (N) students of Yenepoya Nursing College was held on 23rd December 2017 at Yendurance Zone, Yenepoya University. The lamp lighting ceremony held as a tribute to Florence Nightingale and formally declares the students entry into the nursing profession.

The program began with the invocation. Capt. Ajitha Nair, Chief Nursing Officer, Meitra Hospital, Calicut was the chief guest for the program. In her speech, she stressed on the present scenario of health care system and nurses role in patient care. Dr. Mohammad Amin Wani, Chief Operating Officer, Yenepoya Medical College Hospital, Mangaluru Presided over the function and during presidential address, he stressed the importance of nursing profession & dedication needed towards patient care. Mrs. Janet Miranda, Associate Professor, Dept. of OBG Nursing, Yenepoya Nursing College divulged the significance of lamp lighting ceremony. Dr. Leena K.C, Principal, Yenepoya Nursing College recited the Florence nightingale pledge to the novice students. Mrs. Renita Priya D'Souza, Asst. Professor, Dept. of Paediatric Nursing, Yenepoya Nursing College proposed the vote of thanks.

