8. Definitions:

(a) "Program Guidelines" means the current Guidelines for Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation and Emergency Cardiovascular Care, Program Administration Manual: Guidelines for Program Administration and Training (hereinafter "PAM"), and AHA Instructor's Manuals, as they may be amended and/or supplemented by the AHA from time to time.

(b) "Course Completion Cards" or "Cards" are defined as documents made available or provided by AHA, and which indicate a student's successful completion of a specified Course.

(c) "Course" or "Courses" are defined as those courses that follow the curricula of the AHA and teach emergency cardiovascular care according to the Program Guidelines.

(d) "ECC Materials" are defined as emergency cardiovascular care textbooks and materials published by the AHA.

(e) "eCards" means those electronic records that Training Centers may distribute to, or provide access to, students pursuant to Program Guidelines to indicate that the student participated in or successfully completed a Course.

(f) "Instructors" are individuals who have successfully completed AHA authorized Provider and Instructor training and who are authorized by ITC to teach Provider courses to other individuals.

(g) "Training Sites" are organizations engaged or authorized by ITC to teach Courses under the auspices of ITC.

9. ITC Role and Responsibilities:

(a) ITC will teach Courses only within the Geographic Territory, and agrees to do so in compliance with the Program Guidelines.

(b) ITC may contract with other entities (hereinafter "Training Sites") who agree to teach Courses under the direction and guidance of ITC. ITC assumes full responsibility for the actions and performance of the Training Sites, and will ensure that Training Sites teach in compliance with the Program Guidelines.

(c) Periodically, as requested by the AHA, ITC will provide the AHA with a current and accurate list of Training Sites, Instructors, the number of students taught, and such other information as may be requested by AHA but only to the extent allowed by local law and the terms of any applicable consent, if required.

(d) ITC will insure that each student has individual possession of an authorized Course-specific textbook before, during, and after training.

(e) ITC will be responsible for the issuance and security of Course Completion Cards and eCards as outlined in the Program Guidelines: (i) ITC will establish a system for ensuring that Cards are issued only to authorized Training Sites. (ii) ITC and its authorized Training Sites will only issue the appropriate course-specific Course Completion Card or eCard to each student who successfully completes the applicable Course.

(f) ITC will obtain any and all required licenses, permits or documentation and is solely responsible for compliance with all laws and regulations applicable to training activities conducted under this Agreement. ITC will obtain any required or appropriate consent from each student before sharing that student's name and Course completion information with the AHA through AHA's online systems (which systems may include data storage outside of ITC's Territory).

10. Relationship of Parties:

The parties acknowledge and agree that each is an independent entity and, as such, neither party may represent itself as an employee, agent, or representative of the other; nor may it incur any obligations on behalf of the other party.

11. Termination:

(a) The Agreement may be terminated by either party, without cause, upon sixty (60) calendar days' prior written notice.

(b) Either party may terminate this Agreement if the other party breaches any term or condition of this Agreement and fails to cure the breach within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of written notice by the non-defaulting party. The following will also constitute breach or default under this Agreement: (i) Failure to exist or operate as a legal entity or to maintain an office address; or (ii) Assignment for the benefit of creditors, becoming generally insolvent, being placed in receivership or the filing by or against a party of a petition for bankruptcy or for entity reorganization under any bankruptcy act or similar statute.

(c) The AHA may terminate this Agreement upon written notice if it determines, in its sole discretion, that any of the activities permitted or contemplated under this Agreement pose a significant legal or business risk to the AHA.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, AHA may terminate this Agreement if ITC or any Training Site conducts Courses in any country on which the United States government or other governmental entity (except those that are contrary to United States' laws), that (i) imposes sanctions that would prevent the AHA from conducting Courses either directly or indirectly in the country or (ii) for which ITC, Training Site or AHA must obtain a license from the applicable government to conduct Courses. If the United States government should impose sanctions on any country named in the Geographic Territory, the AHA at its option may (i) immediately terminate this Agreement as to that country in which event ITC and its Training Sites will immediately cease conducting Courses in the country, or (ii) may immediately terminate this Agreement in its entirety upon written notice to ITC.

(e) ITC will not distribute any AHA Course Completion Cards or eCards or designate itself, in any manner or any place, as an authorized ECC training center of AHA after this Agreement has been terminated or expired. In addition to any remedies by law or in equity available to AHA, ITC will pay the AHA Two Hundred Dollars (200 US$) as a penalty for each Course Completion Card issued after termination or expiration of this Agreement. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, AHA shall have no liability or obligations to ITC, and ITC shall retain no rights under this Agreement.

12. Warranties:

(a) ITC warrants and represents to the AHA that as of the effective date and at all times during the term of this Agreement: (i) ITC, its agents, affiliates, members, representatives, distributors, contractors, and Training Sites will be in compliance with this Agreement, the provisions of the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and all applicable U.S., local, state and federal laws and regulations, and applicable laws or regulations of any jurisdictions whose laws may apply; (ii) ITC is not a tobacco company, or a tobacco company corporate subsidiary or parent, nor does it receive revenue from tobacco products. "Subsidiary" and "parent" are defined as an entity in which there exists a direct or indirect Five Per Cent (5%) or greater ownership interest by a tobacco company.

(b) EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET OUT IN THIS AGREEMENT, THERE ARE NO WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, BY OPERATION OF LAW OR OTHERWISE.

13. Indemnification and Liability:

(a) ITC will indemnify, defend and hold harmless

the AHA and its directors, officers, employees, agents, distributors, members, volunteers, successors and assigns from and against all suits, proceedings, actions, demands, claims, losses, liability, damages or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and legal costs) arising from (i) ITC's performance or breach of its obligations under this Agreement, (ii) ITC's operation activities and/or distribution of Course Completions Cards, (iii) any breach or alleged breach of ITC's representations or warranties, (iv) any act or omission of ITC in any country in the Geographic Territory, and (v) any act or omission of Training Sites, Instructors, ITC's affiliates, agents, partners or representatives.

(b) The AHA will not be liable for any indirect, special, consequential or incidental damages, including lost profits or any other kind of damages, even if it has been warned of the possibility of such loss or damage. In no event will the AHA's liability under this Agreement exceed $1,000 (US$).

14. Force Majeure: Neither party will be in default under this Agreement, if such results, whether directly or indirectly, from fire, explosion, strike, freight embargo, vis major, or of the public enemy, war, terrorism, civil disturbance, act of any government, de jure or de facto, or agency or official thereof, labor shortage, transportation contingencies, unusually severe weather, default of manufacturer or a supplier, quarantine restrictions, epidemic, or catastrophe.

15. Notices: Any notice required or permitted under this Agreement, will be given in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given upon actual receipt if delivered personally or by courier with receipt obtained therefrom to the parties at their respective addresses.

16. Miscellaneous Provisions:

(a) This Agreement may not be assigned by ITC without the AHA's prior written consent.

(b) No amendment of this Agreement will be binding or enforceable on either party hereto unless in writing signed by both parties.

(c) Should any part, term, or provision of this Agreement be declared to be invalid, void, or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, all remaining parts, terms, and provisions hereof will remain in full force and effect, and will in no way be invalidated, impaired or affected thereby.

(d) This Agreement will be governed by the laws of the State of New York without regard to its conflict of laws provisions. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement will be settled by arbitration in Dallas, Texas in accordance with the International Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. The language of the arbitration will be English. The arbitrators will have no authority to award punitive damages, and may not, in any event, make any ruling, finding, or award that does not conform to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Judgment upon any award rendered through arbitration may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. Injunctive relief may be sought in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(e) This agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior written and oral communications. This Agreement will be written in and governed by the English language.

(f) AHA reserves the right to appoint other ITCs within the Geographic Territory.

(g) The following paragraphs and their subparagraphs will survive termination of this Agreement: 13 (Indemnification and Liability), 16(d) and 16(e)

8. Definitions:

(a) "Program Guidelines" means the current Guidelines for Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation and Emergency Cardiovascular Care, Program Administration Manual: Guidelines for Program Administration and Training (hereinafter "PAM"), and AHA Instructor's Manuals, as they may be amended and/or supplemented by the AHA from time to time.

(b) "Course Completion Cards" or "Cards" are defined as documents made available or provided by AHA, and which indicate a student's successful completion of a specified Course.

(c) "Course" or "Courses" are defined as those courses that follow the curricula of the AHA and teach emergency cardiovascular care according to the Program Guidelines.

(d) "ECC Materials" are defined as emergency cardiovascular care textbooks and materials published by the AHA.

(e) "eCards" means those electronic records that Training Centers may distribute to, or provide access to, students pursuant to Program Guidelines to indicate that the student participated in or successfully completed a Course.

(f) "Instructors" are individuals who have successfully completed AHA authorized Provider and Instructor training and who are authorized by ITC to teach Provider courses to other individuals.

(g) "Training Sites" are organizations engaged or authorized by ITC to teach Courses under the auspices of ITC.

9. ITC Role and Responsibilities:

(a) ITC will teach Courses only within the Geographic Territory, and agrees to do so in compliance with the Program Guidelines.

(b) ITC may contract with other entities (hereinafter "Training Sites") who agree to teach Courses under the direction and guidance of ITC. ITC assumes full responsibility for the actions and performance of the Training Sites, and will ensure that Training Sites teach in compliance with the Program Guidelines.

(c) Periodically, as requested by the AHA, ITC will provide the AHA with a current and accurate list of Training Sites, Instructors, the number of students taught, and such other information as may be requested by AHA but only to the extent allowed by local law and the terms of any applicable consent, if required.

(d) ITC will insure that each student has individual possession of an authorized Course-specific textbook before, during, and after training.

(e) ITC will be responsible for the issuance and security of Course Completion Cards and eCards as outlined in the Program Guidelines: (i) ITC will establish a system for ensuring that Cards are issued only to authorized Training Sites. (ii) ITC and its authorized Training Sites will only issue the appropriate course-specific Course Completion Card or eCard to each student who successfully completes the applicable Course.

(f) ITC will obtain any and all required licenses, permits or documentation and is solely responsible for compliance with all laws and regulations applicable to training activities conducted under this Agreement. ITC will obtain any required or appropriate consent from each student before sharing that student's name and Course completion information with the AHA through AHA's online systems (which systems may include data storage outside of ITC's Territory).

10. Relationship of Parties:

The parties acknowledge and agree that each is an independent entity and, as such, neither party may represent itself as an employee, agent, or representative of the other; nor may it incur any obligations on behalf of the other party.

11. Termination:

(a) The Agreement may be terminated by either party, without cause, upon sixty (60) calendar days' prior written notice.

(b) Either party may terminate this Agreement if the other party breaches any term or condition of this Agreement and fails to cure the breach within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of written notice by the non-defaulting party. The following will also constitute breach or default under this Agreement: (i) Failure to exist or operate as a legal entity or to maintain an office address; or (ii) Assignment for the benefit of creditors, becoming generally insolvent, being placed in receivership or the filing by or against a party of a petition for bankruptcy or for entity reorganization under any bankruptcy act or similar statute.

(c) The AHA may terminate this Agreement upon written notice if it determines, in its sole discretion, that any of the activities permitted or contemplated under this Agreement pose a significant legal or business risk to the AHA.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, AHA may terminate this Agreement if ITC or any Training Site conducts Courses in any country on which the United States government or other governmental entity (except those that are contrary to United States' laws), that (i) imposes sanctions that would prevent the AHA from conducting Courses either directly or indirectly in the country or (ii) for which ITC, Training Site or AHA must obtain a license from the applicable government to conduct Courses. If the United States government should impose sanctions on any country named in the Geographic Territory, the AHA at its option may (i) immediately terminate this Agreement as to that country in which event ITC and its Training Sites will immediately cease conducting Courses in the country, or (ii) may immediately terminate this Agreement in its entirety upon written notice to ITC.

(e) ITC will not distribute any AHA Course Completion Cards or eCards or designate itself, in any manner or any place, as an authorized ECC training center of AHA after this Agreement has been terminated or expired. In addition to any remedies by law or in equity available to AHA, ITC will pay the AHA Two Hundred Dollars (200 US$) as a penalty for each Course Completion Card issued after termination or expiration of this Agreement. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, AHA shall have no liability or obligations to ITC, and ITC shall retain no rights under this Agreement.

12. Warranties:

(a) ITC warrants and represents to the AHA that as of the effective date and at all times during the term of this Agreement: (i) ITC, its agents, affiliates, members, representatives, distributors, contractors, and Training Sites will be in compliance with this Agreement, the provisions of the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and all applicable U.S., local, state and federal laws and regulations, and applicable laws or regulations of any jurisdictions whose laws may apply; (ii) ITC is not a tobacco company, or a tobacco company corporate subsidiary or parent, nor does it receive revenue from tobacco products. "Subsidiary" and "parent" are defined as an entity in which there exists a direct or indirect Five Per Cent (5%) or greater ownership interest by a tobacco company.

(b) EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET OUT IN THIS AGREEMENT, THERE ARE NO WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, BY OPERATION OF LAW OR OTHERWISE.

13. Indemnification and Liability:

(a) ITC will indemnify, defend and hold harmless

the AHA and its directors, officers, employees, agents, distributors, members, volunteers, successors and assigns from and against all suits, proceedings, actions, demands, claims, losses, liability, damages or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and legal costs) arising from (i) ITC's performance or breach of its obligations under this Agreement, (ii) ITC's operation activities and/or distribution of Course Completions Cards, (iii) any breach or alleged breach of ITC's representations or warranties, (iv) any act or omission of ITC in any country in the Geographic Territory, and (v) any act or omission of Training Sites, Instructors, ITC's affiliates, agents, partners or representatives.

(b) The AHA will not be liable for any indirect, special, consequential or incidental damages, including lost profits or any other kind of damages, even if it has been warned of the possibility of such loss or damage. In no event will the AHA's liability under this Agreement exceed $1,000 (US$).

14. Force Majeure: Neither party will be in default under this Agreement, if such results, whether directly or indirectly, from fire, explosion, strike, freight embargo, vis major, or of the public enemy, war, terrorism, civil disturbance, act of any government, de jure or de facto, or agency or official thereof, labor shortage, transportation contingencies, unusually severe weather, default of manufacturer or a supplier, quarantine restrictions, epidemic, or catastrophe.

15. Notices: Any notice required or permitted under this Agreement, will be given in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given upon actual receipt if delivered personally or by courier with receipt obtained therefrom to the parties at their respective addresses.

16. Miscellaneous Provisions:

(a) This Agreement may not be assigned by ITC without the AHA's prior written consent.

(b) No amendment of this Agreement will be binding or enforceable on either party hereto unless in writing signed by both parties.

(c) Should any part, term, or provision of this Agreement be declared to be invalid, void, or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, all remaining parts, terms, and provisions hereof will remain in full force and effect, and will in no way be invalidated, impaired or affected thereby.

(d) This Agreement will be governed by the laws of the State of New York without regard to its conflict of laws provisions. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement will be settled by arbitration in Dallas, Texas in accordance with the International Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. The language of the arbitration will be English. The arbitrators will have no authority to award punitive damages, and may not, in any event, make any ruling, finding, or award that does not conform to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Judgment upon any award rendered through arbitration may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. Injunctive relief may be sought in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(e) This agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior written and oral communications. This Agreement will be written in and governed by the English language.

(f) AHA reserves the right to appoint other ITCs within the Geographic Territory.

(g) The following paragraphs and their subparagraphs will survive termination of this Agreement: 13 (Indemnification and Liability), 16(d) and 16(e)

 - (iii) may be required to obtain relevant professional advice (including Legal, HR and Finance) and internal approvals.
- (d) The parties understand they may be requested to:
 - (i) provide relevant information and documents to the other party (including confidential information in the possession of that party);
 - (ii) conduct due diligence and prepare appropriate documentation including intellectual property audits, business plans and risk assessments.

3 Limits of understanding

- (a) This document is only to express the intentions of the parties to cooperate. The expressed intentions in this document are not to be read or regarded as binding. No legally binding obligations arise as a consequence of the signing of this document. This document is not capable of giving rise to any ground for a party to institute legal proceedings of any kind against another party.
- (b) No offer or guarantee is made or contained herein. Actions taken by any party in reliance on this document, or statements made pursuant to this document, will be at that party's sole risk.
- (c) A party may withdraw from their stated intention to cooperate at any time by written notice to the other party. Unless a party withdraws at an earlier time, this document shall expire within 3 years of signing.
- (d) Each party is aware that this document does not contain any obligations of confidentiality. If the parties wish to exchange confidential information, they will enter a separate, legally binding confidentiality agreement.
- (e) The parties agree that, as at the date of signing this document, to the best of their knowledge, no conflict of interest exists or is likely to arise in relation to the intention of the parties to cooperate under this document. If during the term of this document, a conflict or potential conflict of interest arises for one of the parties, then that party will immediately notify the other party in writing of that conflict or potential conflict of interest.

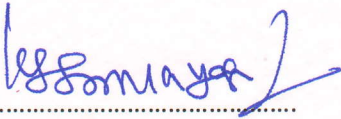

4 Other

- (a) Each party will bear its own costs relating to this document.

Memorandum of Understanding

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this document to be executed in two identical copies of one and the same effect by their respective duly authorised representatives on the day and year first above written.

4 Changes to the consortium, subcontracting and dispute resolution

- 4.1 Each party shall perform the R&D activity, if any, that the party in question has undertaken pursuant to the Project description. A party undertakes to notify the other party promptly about any significant information, facts, problems or delays likely to affect the Project.

- 4.2 If a party does not perform the agreed R&D activity in a satisfactory manner, this should be discussed between the Key responsible persons in order to find a solution.
- 4.3 Disputes that may arise between the parties shall be settled by amicable negotiations in good faith between the parties. If the Key responsible persons are not able to agree, negotiations between the Principals of the parties shall take place to find a solution. See also paragraph 12.2.
- 4.4 A party that enters into a subcontract remains responsible for carrying out its relevant part of the Project and for such subcontractor's compliance with the provisions of this Collaboration agreement and the Granting letter. It has to ensure that the involvement of a subcontractor does not affect the rights and obligations of the other parties under this Collaboration agreement and the Granting letter.

5 Project plan, reporting and payment

- 5.1 The Project owner is responsible for coordinating the scientific and financial reporting to the Olav Thon Foundation. The other parties shall without undue delay submit all Project results, reports, accounting documentation and other documents that the Project owner requires fulfilling its obligations to the Olav Thon Foundation.
- 5.2 The Project owner is responsible for ensuring that funds disbursed by the Olav Thon Foundation are managed in compliance with Appendix 1. The same applies to the disbursement of funds to the other parties.
- 5.3 In accordance with its own usual accounting and management principles and practices, each party shall be solely responsible for justifying its costs with respect to the Project towards the Olav Thon Foundation.
- 5.4 The distribution of funds to the parties and any following requirements thereto, is defined in Appendix 4.
- 5.5 If a party spends less than its allocated share of the annual budget as defined in Appendix 4 to this agreement, said party will be funded in accordance with its actual duly justified eligible costs only.
- 5.6 If a party spends more than its allocated share of the annual budget as defined in Appendix 4, said party will be funded only in respect of duly justified eligible costs up to an amount not exceeding that share, if not agreed in writing between the parties in advance.

6 Background

- 6.1 The Background of the Project is described in Appendix 3. The ownership of the Background will be maintained by the party that brought it into the Project.
- 6.2 Any party wishing to contribute further Background during the Project shall notify the other parties of this. Any request put forward for Background to the Project shall be approved by the other parties, and Appendix 3 shall be updated accordingly.

- 6.3 Any results from the Project that do not comprise Background pursuant to Appendix 3 and are not approved by the parties as Background pursuant to Section 6.2 will automatically be assigned the status of Project results. For the sake of clarity, this shall not limit a party's Intellectual property rights to technology or knowledge that said party can document was developed independently from the Project.
- 6.4 For the duration of the Project, a party shall have access at no charge to the other party's Background that is Needed for the implementation of their own work in the Project.
- 6.5 User rights to Background if Needed for Commercial utilisation of a party's own Project results shall be granted on fair and reasonable conditions. Any Commercial utilisation of Background owned by the other party must be regulated by specific written agreements.

7 Ownership rights to Project results

- 7.1 Each party has the right of ownership to Project results that the party generates on its own.
- 7.2 If a Project result has been jointly generated by the parties and if their respective share of the Project results cannot be ascertained, they shall have joint ownership of such Project results in shares corresponding to the intellectual contribution.

Said parties shall, if the nature of the Project result(s) requires so, and/or if requested by one of the parties conclude a joint ownership agreement for the use of the jointly owned Project results, including possible protection and cost allocation for the Project results. The joint ownership agreement shall as a minimum include:

- A definition of relevant Project results having joint ownership.
 - A description of which of the joint owners that shall have the operative responsibility for protecting (through registration of Intellectual property rights and otherwise), and managing the jointly owned Project results (hereinafter named IP Manager), including a clear description of the IP Manager's Power of Attorney.
- 7.3 The owner(s) of a Project result that might have potential for Commercial utilisation, hereunder patent protection, are obliged to evaluate the need for protection of said Project results, and if relevant, secure protection by means and to the extent considered reasonable.

8. User rights to Project results and software

- 8.1 User rights to Project results for the execution of own work of a party under the Project shall be granted on a royalty-free basis.
- 8.2 The parties shall have free access to use Project results for internal non-commercial research and education purposes. The parties shall have free access to use all general experience and professional knowledge that has been acquired during execution of the Project.
- 8.3 User rights to Project results if Needed for Commercial utilisation of a party's own Project results, including third party research, shall be granted on fair and reasonable conditions.
- 8.4 For the avoidance of doubt, the general provisions for user rights provided for in this Section 8 are applicable also to software. The parties' user rights to software do not include any right to receive source code or object code ported to a certain hardware platform or any right to receive respective software documentation in any particular form or detail, but only as available from the party granting the user rights.

9. Confidentiality

- 9.1 All information in whatever form or mode of transmission, which is disclosed by a party (the "disclosing party") to the other party (the "recipient party") in connection with the Project during its implementation, and which has been explicitly marked as "confidential", or when disclosed orally, has been identified as confidential at the time of disclosure and has been confirmed and designated in writing within 15 (fifteen) days at the latest as confidential information by the disclosing party, shall be treated as "Confidential information".
- 9.2 The recipient party hereby undertakes in addition, for a period of 3 (three) years after the termination of the Project:
- not to use Confidential information otherwise and without prejudice to any commitment of non-disclosure;
 - not to disclose Confidential information to any third party without the prior written consent by the disclosing party;
 - to ensure that internal distribution of Confidential information by a recipient party shall take place on a strict need-to-know basis; and
 - to return to the disclosing party on demand all Confidential information which has been supplied to or acquired by the recipient parties including all copies thereof and to delete all information stored in a machine-readable form. However, if required by national applicable law, a copy of such information may be retained.
- 9.3 The recipient party shall be responsible for the fulfilment of the above obligations on the part of their employees and shall ensure that their employees remain so obliged, as far as legally possible, during and after the termination of the Project and/or after the termination of employment.
- 9.4 The above shall not apply for disclosure or use of Confidential information, if and in so far as the recipient party can show that:
- the Confidential information becomes publicly available by means other than a breach of the recipient party's confidentiality obligations;
 - the disclosing party subsequently informs the recipient party that the Confidential information is no longer confidential;
 - the Confidential information is communicated to the recipient party without any obligation of confidentiality by a third party who is in lawful possession thereof and under no obligation of confidence to the disclosing party;
 - the Confidential information, at any time, was developed by the recipient party completely independently of any such disclosure by the disclosing party; or
 - the Confidential information was already known to the recipient party prior to disclosure.
- 9.5 The recipient party shall apply the same degree of care with regard to the Confidential information disclosed within the scope of the Project as with its own confidential and/or proprietary information, but in no case less than reasonable care.
- 9.6 Each party shall promptly advise the other party in writing of any unauthorized disclosure, misappropriation or misuse by any person, of Confidential information as soon as said party becomes aware of such unauthorized disclosure, misappropriation or misuse.

9.7 If any party becomes aware that it will be required, or is likely to be required, to disclose Confidential information in order to comply with applicable laws or regulations or with a court or administrative order, it shall, to the extent it is lawfully able to do so, prior to any such disclosure:

- notify the disclosing party, and
- comply with the disclosing party 's reasonable instructions in order to protect the confidentiality of the information.

9.8 The confidentiality obligations under this Consortium agreement shall not prevent the communication of Confidential information to the Olav Thon Foundation.

10. Dissemination of Project results

10.1 Project results shall be published as rapidly as possible in accordance with the procedure described herein.

10.2 Prior notice of any planned publication shall be distributed between the parties and sent to the Project manager at least 14 calendar days before the submission of the publication. Any objection to the planned publication by any party shall be made in writing to the Project manager and the relevant party within 7 calendar days after receipt of the notice. If no objection is made within the time limit stated above, the publication is permitted.

10.3 An objection is justified if:

- a) the protection of the objecting party's Project results or Background is adversely affected in which case a delay according to 10.5 may be requested; or
- b) the proposed publication includes Confidential information of the objecting party.

10.4 An objection has to include a precise request for necessary modifications.

10.5 If the owner of a Project result wants to protect the Project result, the owner may request that a publication covering that Project result is withheld up to 4 months from receipt of the publication notice. Any such requests and/or objections should be handled according to guidelines at the involved party's institution and national laws.

10.6 For the avoidance of doubt, a party shall not include in any publication another party's Project results or Background without obtaining the owning party's prior written approval, unless they are already published.

10.7 Nothing in this Consortium agreement shall be construed as conferring rights to use in advertising, publicity or otherwise the name of the parties or any of their logos or trademarks without their prior written approval.

11 Liability of the parties in relation to each other 11.1 In respect of any information or materials (incl. Project results and Background) supplied by one party to another under the Project, no warranty or representation of any kind is made, given or implied as to the sufficiency or fitness for purpose nor as to the absence of any infringement of any proprietary rights of third parties.

Therefore,

- the recipient party shall in all cases be entirely and solely liable for the use to which it puts such information and materials, and

- no party granting user rights shall be liable in case of infringement of proprietary rights of a third party resulting from any other party exercising its user rights.
- 11.2 No party shall be responsible to any other party for any indirect or consequential loss or similar damage such as, but not limited to, loss of profit, loss of revenue or loss of contracts, provided such damage was not caused by a wilful act or by gross negligence.
- 11.3 For any remaining contractual liability, a party's aggregate liability towards the other parties collectively shall be limited to once the party's share of the total costs of the Project, provided such damage was not caused by a wilful act or gross negligence.
- 11.4 The terms of this Collaboration agreement shall not be construed to amend or limit any party's statutory liability.
- 11.5 Each party shall be solely liable for any loss, damage or injury to third parties resulting from the performance of the said party's obligations by it or on its behalf under this Collaboration agreement or from its use of Project results or Background.
- 11.6 No party shall be considered to be in breach of this Collaboration agreement if it is prevented from fulfilling its obligations under the Collaboration agreement by Force majeure. Each party will notify the Project manager without undue delay. If the consequences of Force majeure for the Project are not overcome within 6 weeks after such notification, the transfer of tasks - if any - shall be decided by the involved Key responsible persons.

12 The Consortium agreement's validity, dissolution of a consortium, interpretation, etc.

- 12.1 This agreement will enter into force upon being signed and will continue to apply in its entirety until the conclusion of the Project period pursuant to Appendix 1, unless the parties decides otherwise.
- 12.2 This agreement is subject to Norwegian law. Attempts shall be made to resolve any disputes by negotiation or voluntary mediation. In the event such attempts do not succeed within one month after negotiations have been requested, the dispute may be brought before the district court of Sør-Trøndelag.

13 Signatures

- 13.1 The Parties have caused this Collaboration agreement to be duly signed by the undersigned authorised representatives in separate signature pages.

Yenepoya (Deemed to be University)

1. Proteomic facilities including Orbitrap Tribrid Fusion mass spectrometer, QTRAP mass spectrometer and accessories, licensed software such as Proteome Discover Suite, MASCOT search algorithms
2. Routine molecular biology equipment including PCR, Western Blot apparatus, and HPLC
3. Servers for data storage and analysis

APPENDIX 4: Annual cost and funding plan for the parties' involvement in the Project, involving distribution of funds from the Project owner.

The original budget is included with Appendix 1. The budget is revised to include a split in the technical position between NTNU and FZB with allocation of funds equivalent to 975 kNOK over 4 years including running costs (Table 1).

NTNU will transfer the parties' share of the funds, given in Tables 1-2.

YP will receive their share of funding once a year (July). The transfer will be made by direct payment in advance. Accrued costs must be specified and sent to NTNU twice a year (15 January and 15 July) using table 3 below.

LiU and FZB will receive their share of funding one time each year (July) after NTNU has received the funding from the Olav Thon Foundation. The transfer will be carried out by direct payment in arrears based on eligible and documented costs. The accrued costs for every 12 months shall be specified and sent to NTNU (using Table 3 below) before the direct payment is carried out.

The reports from all parties' must contain the following cost categories:

- a) Personell and indirect costs
- b) Procurement of FoU
- c) Equipment (use of lab infrastructure)
- d) Other operating costs

In addition, any own financing from the parties has to be reported to the Project owner.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

This Memorandum of Agreement is being entered into

Between

Yenepoya deemed to be University, Deralakatte, Mangaluru 575018 India represented by Registrar, of the one part (hereinafter called first party)

And

Monash University, acting through its Faculty of Medicine, Nursing and Health Sciences (ABN 12 377 614 012) of Wellington Road, Clayton, Victoria 3800 Australia of the second part (hereinafter called second party)

Witnesseth as follows...

Whereas the National Institutes of Health, Bethesda, USA (hereinafter referred to as NIH), an agency funding research activities in the United States of America and the Fogarty International Center, a part of National Institutes of Health, funding research activities outside the United States of America had called for proposal under the Funding Opportunity Title "International Research Ethics Education and Curriculum Development Award" (Funding Opportunity Announcement No. PAR-13-027) to develop bioethics education related to research, in low and middle income countries.

And whereas, Yenepoya deemed to be University applied for and Dr. Vina Vaswani, Director, Centre for Ethics, Yenepoya University was made Principal Investigator for the purpose of this award, along with Dr. Bebe Loff, Director, Michael Kirby Centre for Public Health and Human Rights, Monash University as Co-Principal Investigator for educational research grant "Yenepoya University-Fogarty International Center's Research Ethics Master's Program for India".

And whereas NIH was pleased to grant this award to Yenepoya deemed to be University as per final Notice of Award dated 12 December 2017 (Grant award no. 1R25TW010305-01 REVISED) (Enclosure 1).

Now this memorandum of agreement is being entered into between the two parties mentioned above, between the two universities in order to facilitate the disbursal of the payment earmarked for Co-Principal Investigator, Dr. Bebe Loff's educational research activities related to the abovementioned grant , and is agreed on the following terms and conditions:

1. This memorandum comes into force on the day it is signed by all signatories and shall continue until 31 August 2021, as specified in the NIH Notice of Award.
2. Payment of total costs of USD 200,000, payable over 5 years, comprising 5 payments of USD 40,000 per year, (with breakup under heads of salary, fringe benefits, travel and additional support for Co-PI as stated in the revised budget of September 2017 Enclosure 2, mutually agreed upon by both PIs and approved by NIH as per the NoA page 5) will be made to Monash University, Australia, subject to release of funds by the NIH for each budget period (Enclosure 1; page 9) in their abovementioned Notice of Award. Yenepoya deemed to be University will transfer this amount to Monash University for Dr. Bebe Loff, for her role as Co-Principal Investigator for this grant, as described in the Revised Multiple Leadership Plan, mutually approved by both Principal Investigators and the NIH. Yenepoya deemed to be University will transfer this amount of USD 40,000 for each of the budget periods being for 5 years (as per NoA; page 9), (totalling USD 200,000) as and when the NIH funds are approved and released, and within 15 days of release of the funds by NIH.
3. This agreement will be in force as long as Dr. Bebe Loff is in service of Monash University and as long as the NIH grant (Grant no. 1R25TW010305-01 Revised) continues.
4. This memorandum will be terminated when the NIH grant period ends, or if and when the NIH prematurely terminates the grant, or when Dr. Bebe Loff resigns from the service of Monash University. Either party may terminate this Agreement immediately by written notice if the other commits a material breach of this Agreement which it fails to remedy within thirty (30) days of being notified of the breach. The Parties may immediately terminate this Agreement by mutual consent in writing.
5. If Dr. Vina Vaswani should resign from the service of Yenepoya deemed to be University, Yenepoya deemed to be University will continue to abide by the - terms and conditions laid down in this agreement, for the budget periods mentioned in the Notice of Award, with approval from the NIH.

6. Since the grant is sanctioned to Yenepoya deemed to be University, for running the educational program "Yenepoya University-Fogarty International Center Research Ethics Master's Program for India", after clearance and permission from Health Ministry Screening Committee, Government of India, and further since the entire teaching activity is in Yenepoya deemed to be University, Mangaluru, India any disputes arising in relation to this agreement will be governed by the laws of Mangaluru, India.
 - a. Ownership of rights in any background intellectual property(background IP) will remain with the contributing party. Where the background property IP is contributed by Yenepoya, Monash is licensed to use, modify or adapt that background IP for the performance of the education research program. Where the background IP is contributed by Monash, Yenepoya is licensed to use, modify or adapt that background IP for the use of the education research program.
 - b. Rights of intellectual properties created by Yenepoya using the funding for this educational research program, rest with Yenepoya deemed to be University and rights of intellectual properties created by Monash using the funding for this educational research program rest with Monash. All manuscripts arising out of this education research program and submitted for publication, will follow the authorship guidelines as laid down in International Committee for Medical Journal Editors recommendations (www.icmje.org) and the NIH requirements for publication.
 8. Final NIH Notice of Award of 12/12/2017 for grant no. 1R25TW010305-01 REVISED and Revised Multiple Leadership Plan submitted to NIH in October 2016 are to be considered as part and parcel of this agreement.
 9. Neither party will use the other party's name or the name of any employee of the other party in any publication or promotional material without the other party's written consent.
 10. Neither party will represent that the other or that any of their respective employees in any way endorse, support or approve of any product, service, intellectual property or business, without prior written consent from the other party.

11. a. If any dispute arises between the parties out of or in relation to this Agreement, the parties will endeavour to resolve that dispute by negotiation in good faith.
- b. If the dispute is not mutually resolved within thirty (30) days of a party serving on the other a written dispute notice, each party must nominate one senior representative who will meet in India, as soon as practicable for the purpose of endeavouring to resolve the dispute.
- c. The provisions of this clause will not preclude a party from seeking urgent interlocutory relief in a court of competent jurisdiction.
14. This Agreement may only be varied in writing by the parties.
15. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, which taken together will constitute one document. Counterparts may be exchanged by digital scan which may be relied upon by the receiving party as having the same legal force and effect as the original signed counterpart.
16. This Agreement does not create a partnership, agency, fiduciary or other relationship, except the relationship of contracting parties. No Party is liable for the acts or omission of any other Party, save as set out in this Agreement.
17. Both parties undertake not to engage in any act which may result in the contravening of any law prohibiting or restricting dealings with proscribed states, persons or entities or seeking to prevent the proliferation of weapons, including but not limited to laws implementing the sanctions imposed by the United Nations Security Council.

In witness whereof this memorandum is signed and sealed by the parties mentioned above this _____ day of 2018.

Memorandum of Understanding Between

Yenepoya University, Mangaluru, India
and
International Union Against Tuberculosis and Lung Disease (The Union), Paris, France

Yenepoya University, University road, Deralakatte, Mangaluru - 575018, represented by its Registrar, Dr G. Shreekumar Menon herein after called as first party.

AND

International Union Against Tuberculosis and Lung Disease (The Union), Paris, France, 68 Boulevard Saint Michel, 75006 Paris, represented by its Executive Director, José Luis Castro herein after called as second party.

Whereas, the first party is a deemed university accredited "A grade" by National Accreditation Assessment Council (NAAC) with Yenepoya Medical College being one of the constituent colleges, hereinafter called YMC, engaged in the treatment of patients, teaching, research and service.

Department of Community Medicine under YMC is an undergraduate and postgraduate training department involved in community oriented training, research and service to the community. The department is also providing promotive, preventive and curative health services to the community through different tiers of health care delivery systems. It caters to the 1 lakh population. Priority research areas include operational research in tuberculosis, non-communicable diseases, and maternal child health including adolescent health.

Department of Community Medicine will be the coordinating department from the first party.

Whereas, the second party is a non-governmental scientific organisation promoting national autonomy within the framework of the priorities of each country by developing, implementing and assessing tuberculosis, lung health and non-communicable disease programmes as well as other public health issues. The Union headquarters is in Paris, France, and has branch offices in India covering the South-East Asia region, China, Myanmar, DR Congo, Uganda, Zimbabwe, Peru, and Mexico.

Under WHO's Stop TB Strategy, which drew heavily on The Union model (DOTS), an estimated 43 million lives were saved between 2000 and 2014. In 2015, the next phase – the End TB Strategy – was launched.

The Union adopts a vision "Health solutions for the poor" and focuses on TB, TB-HIV, lung health, non-communicable diseases, tobacco control and operational research.

The Centre for Operational Research (COR) will be the coordinating unit from the second party.

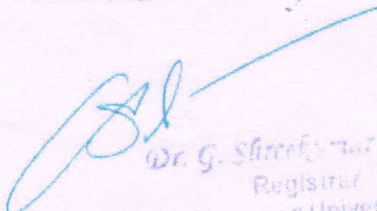

In order to facilitate capacity building of public health professionals by conducting joint academic and scientific activities, International Union Against Tuberculosis and Lung Disease, Paris, France & Yenepoya University, Mangaluru, India agree to enter into a memorandum of understanding (MoU) on the following articles within the extent of each country's regulations & facilities.

1. Organisation of joint academic and scientific activities such as short course, workshop or any courses related to operational research.
2. To promote the development of training modules and course materials by involving faculty/researchers from the two institutions.
3. Explore possibility of research collaboration between the two institutions.
4. Explore possibility of exchange of faculty and researchers to participate in training workshops and other academic programmes within the extent of each institution's regulations and facilities.
5. Signature of this protocol shall not cause any obligation for either party or enter into any specific agreement relating to cooperation between two institutions.

6. This protocol shall be in effect for one year following the date of signature. This protocol may be complemented or amended by the written and common consent of authorized representatives of both institutions and additional protocols to this protocol. The addenda or amendments will not be valid unless it is written and signed. The protocol may be extended as required by written and signed consent of the parties.
7. Each organisation shall reserve the right to terminate the protocol by issuing a written notice one month in advance to the other party. In that case, on-going projects shall be completed.

This is a legally non-binding agreement which outlines an intention to promote academic and research collaboration between the two institutions.

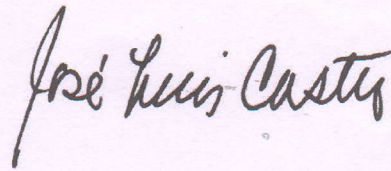

This protocol shall become effective after signing by the authorized representatives of both the institutions.

Memorandum of Understanding between Yenepoya University
and
The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Yenepoya University ("YU") in Mangalore, Karnataka, India, and The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill ("UNC-Chapel Hill") in the United States of America, for the purpose of furthering cooperation in education, research, and other activity hereby enter into this Memorandum of Understanding ("Memorandum") which affirms their intent to pursue a mutually beneficial relationship. Although this Memorandum has been initiated by the Yenepoya Dental College at YU and the School of Dentistry at UNC-Chapel Hill, other units at each Institution may also pursue the activities described below under the same terms of this Memorandum.

- I. To promote collaborative activity, both Institutions will explore opportunities for cooperation in the following areas:
 - A. Development of academic programs and courses;
 - B. Exchange of academic staff and researchers for the purposes of teaching and research;
 - C. Exchange of students for the purposes of education and training;
 - D. Reciprocal assistance for visiting academic staff and students;
 - E. Coordination of such activities as joint research, lecturing, and training;
 - F. Exchange of documentation, research materials, publications, and information in fields of mutual interest; and
 - G. Other activities of mutual benefit to both Institutions.

The terms of any collaborative activity will be described and agreed upon in separate written agreements, which may be attached as addenda to this Memorandum. Both Institutions acknowledge that any binding terms and conditions regarding their collaboration or cooperation, including but not limited to specific financial, administrative, scientific, intellectual property, and legal terms, will be set forth in separate written agreements, to be executed by authorized representatives of both Institutions. Nothing in this Memorandum establishes an exclusive relationship between the Institutions.

- II. This Memorandum does not bind either Institution to any current or future financial commitment. Each Institution will bear its own costs associated with preparation of this Memorandum.
- III. No person should be excluded from activities under this Memorandum on the basis of race, color, gender, national origin, age, religion, creed, disability, veteran's status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression.

- IV. Except in promoting the collaborative activities described above, neither Institution may use the other's name or logo in any press release, fund-raising, website, product advertising, or for any other promotional or publicity purpose, without written permission from the other. Written permission must be obtained to use the other's trademarks for any purpose.
- V. The Institutions will comply with all applicable law and regulations with respect to activity under this Memorandum, including law related to anti-bribery, economic sanctions, export control, anti-boycott, privacy and data protection, higher education, and accreditation standards or procedures. Each Institution acknowledges that activities under this Memorandum will be subject to all required approvals, accreditations, consents, licenses, or permits, from U.S. and Indian governmental authorities, as well as internal approvals, as necessary to proceed with the activity.
- VI. Activities carried out under this Memorandum will be done without the disclosure of either Institution's confidential or proprietary information to the other Institution or to third parties. Should it become necessary for the Institutions to disclose to each other confidential or proprietary information, the providing Institution will notify the receiving Institution in advance and in writing, and the Institutions will agree on reasonable terms for the protection of such information. All confidential information will be clearly marked as such, or promptly disclosed as such, in writing.
- VII. Neither Institution may assign or otherwise transfer this Memorandum, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of the other Institution.
- VIII. This Memorandum does not establish a legal partnership, joint venture, employment relationship, or relationship of agency between the Institutions. Neither Institution may act as an agent on behalf of the other Institution on any matter, including in matters with the other Institution's national government.
- IX. In the event that a translation of this Memorandum is prepared or signed by the Institutions, the English language version will govern in the event of a conflict between the English language version and the translation.
- X. This Memorandum may be amended by mutual written agreement by the Institutions. No amendment will be valid unless signed by authorized representatives of each Institution.
- XI. This Memorandum will be effective on the date of the last signature for a period of five years. This Memorandum may be renewed upon the written agreement of both Institutions and may be terminated upon six months written notice by either Institution. However, termination will not affect separate written agreements between the Institutions (whether or not attached as addenda to this Memorandum) which will be governed in accordance with their terms.

Director: Prof. Dr. Norbert W. Paul, MA

In order to promote medical, scholarly and cultural co-operation, the Medical and Dental College of the Yenepoya University in Mangalore, India, and the University Medical Center hereby agree upon co-operating directly as follows:

Article 1

The institutions consider a partnership and co-operation in Excellence in medical research and education with a current focus on clinical ethics. Based on mutual relationships they agree upon cooperative projects in research and education.

Article 2

Joint projects, which will be carried out by the Working Group on Clinical Ethics, Medical Faculty of the Yenepoya University and the Institute for the History, Philosophy and Ethics of Medicine at the University Medical Center of Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz will focus on research and education, including objectives in the theoretical foundations and methodologies of clinical ethics, practices and quality assurance of clinical ethics consultations and the clinical impact of clinical ethics.

Other Institutes and working groups of both universities are strongly encouraged to develop their own programs in medical research and education, including programs in maxillofacial, dental, and oral medicine, for which the Clinic for Maxillofacial, Dental and Oral Diseases at the University Medical Center of Johannes Gutenberg-University Mainz offers to serve as cooperation partner.

Article 3

The institutions nominate a representative who will co-ordinate and supervise all aspects of co-operation. For the institution in Mangalore, this will be Dr. Vina Vaswani MD, M Phil, MA Organizing Secretary International Indo-German CME on Clinical Ethics Consultation Yenepoya University, Mangalore, for the University Medical Center of Johannes Gutenberg-University Mainz this will be Prof. Dr. Norbert W. Paul, M.A., Director of the Institute for the History, Philosophy and Ethics of Medicine and chair of the Clinical Ethics Committee.

Article 4

All partners shall endeavor to promote the following aspects of scholarly and cultural co-operation in accordance with the applicable laws and faculty resolutions.

1. Exchange of visiting teachers and academic staff
2. Exchange of postgraduate students and postdoctoral scholars with the emphasis on short-term stays (2 to 6 months; possibly to be financed by scholarships from sponsoring organisations)
3. Exchange of students
4. Assistance for exchange students in applying for admission and enrolment, in procuring housing/dormitory accommodation, and in procuring internships
5. Exchange of publications, teaching and research programs, and guidelines for the clinical practice.
6. Co-operation in scholarly research, exchange of research findings and publications
7. Mutual invitations to participate in scholarly seminars, lectures, educational programs and clinical ethics consultations as long as legally permitted.
8. Making arrangements for guest professors on short or long term teaching appointments
9. Co-operation in education includes the opportunity for joint excursions and the auditing of clinical ethics consultations with guidance from the host institution.
10. Guests at the respective host institutions will be granted access to research facilities such as libraries, manuscript collections, archives, laboratories, etc.

Special agreements concerning future projects will be negotiated and decided depending upon the availability of equipment and finances in written form. The execution of these agreements will not cause any financial obligations for either side.

Article 5

Results of joint research projects are to be published in Germany and India, however, the preference is to collaboratively publish results in international journals. The German university will be responsible for the publication of results in Germany, and the Yenepoya University will be responsible for the publication of results in India. All publications on the international level have to be signed by all parties. All publications shall be in accordance with the usual academic practices.

Article 6

This agreement will be valid for 5 years after the signature date. It is the intention of both parties to consider extending this contract by the end of the contract term for another period of 5 years by signing an amendment to this contract.

Article 7

Following mutual consultations, the partners may agree upon the inclusion of other international Centers of Excellence. A review and assessment of scholarly and clinical excellence is the pre-condition for the inclusion into the cooperation. In this case, additional partners will have to sign an amendment to this agreement to become equal partners with all rights and duties.

Article 8

The parties' liability regarding the conduct of this contract is limited to gross negligence and willful misconduct. No party shall be responsible for any lost profits, lost opportunities, or other consequential damages.

If any provision of this Agreement shall be found to be void, invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be enforced to the maximum extent permissible by applicable law so as to effect the intent of the Parties, and the remainder of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect. The Parties shall negotiate in good faith an enforceable substitute provision for any invalid or unenforceable provision that most nearly achieves the intent and economic effect of such provision.

Any changes or additions to this Agreement shall be made in writing. The same applies to any amendment of the clause stipulating the requirement for the written form itself.

Signed by its duly authorised representatives, this agreement becomes valid on February 15, 2016.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

between

and

CENTROSCULTURALES DE MÉXICO, A.C.,

UNIVERSIDAD PANAMERICANA

Yenepeya University, Deralakatte, Mangalore, India and Universidad Panamericana, Mexico City, Mexico, wishing to formalize institutional collaborations and promote the enrichment of their education, training and research programs, agree to establish a cooperative agreement in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Memorandum of Understanding (hereinafter referred to as MoU), which is entered as of this first day of December Two thousand and fourteen. (the effective date).

I. Scope of Cooperation

The areas of cooperation include, subject to mutual written consent, any program offered at either University that Yenepeya University and Universidad Panamericana agree would be feasible and would contribute to the fostering and development of the cooperative relationship between the two parties.

II. Area of Cooperation

All cooperative programs, activities, and projects shall be subject to the availability of funds and the pre-approval of Yenepeya University and Universidad Panamericana. Programs, activities and projects may include:

1. Special short-term academic programs, including study abroad and student exchanges
2. Curriculum development
3. Participation in seminars and academic meetings
4. Exchange of faculty members and students

H. Abrador

5. Exchange of academic materials and other information
6. Collaboration on research grants
7. Other programs mutually agreed upon

The terms applicable to any specific program or activity implemented under this MoU shall be discussed and agreed upon in writing by both parties prior to the initiation of the particular program or activity. Any such program-specific agreement will be attached to this MoU and subject to the provisions herein.

III. Definitions, Rules and Regulations

a. Definitions

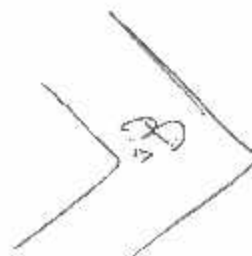

In this agreement "home institution" shall mean the University from which the student intends to graduate; and "host institution" shall mean the University that has agreed to receive the exchange student from the home institution. The definition of a "student" is any individual enrolled in undergraduate, graduate (i.e. medical and master's degree students), or post graduate (i.e. medical residents and fellows) studies. "Faculty" is defined as part time, full time, and adjunct teaching and/or research faculty in any of the institutions/centres of the respective universities.

b. Point of contact

Each institution shall appoint a coordinator who will be the point of contact with participating students, the home institutions, and as necessary, with any other individuals within the host institution. It will be the responsibility of the coordinator to advise students, or designate an appropriate academic advisor to oversee the student's progress and to assist them in their interactions with faculty and administrators. The coordinator will also be responsible for providing exchange students with necessary information concerning housing visas, transportation, and other related questions.

c. Rules and Regulations

Participating students and faculty members will abide by the policies, rules and regulations in effect at both institutions as set forth in the student handbooks/prospectus, or any other applicable policies of the respective institutions. Students and faculty members whose academic work or behavior is deemed not suitable may be terminated from participation by either institution's Program Director. In case where a decision is made unilaterally, the Program Director making the decision shall promptly notify the other institution's Program Director of the termination and the reason(s) therefore.

M. Alvarado

d. Incident Reporting

Each institution agrees to immediately report to the other, verbally and in writing, any emergency, accident, injury, crisis, incident, complaint, crime, disciplinary violation or allegation involving an exchange student or faculty member, as well as any academic behavioral or disciplinary problem, allegation or proceeding involving an exchange student or faculty member during or in connection with the Program(s) contemplated herein.

IV. Medical Student Exchange Program

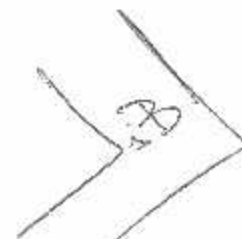

Yenepoya University and Universidad Panamericana agree to establish a medical student exchange. The purpose of this exchange is to introduce students of the two countries to each other's educational and healthcare systems, and to strengthen their knowledge and practical skills.

a. Medical Student Eligibility

Depending on their background and skills, Yenepoya University medical and graduate students may participate in this program at any time after the completion of their second phase (fifth term). Universidad Panamericana students must have completed the required clerkships in Internal Medicine, Surgery, Pediatrics, and Obstetrics & Gynecology prior to visiting Yenepoya University for a clinical rotation. In consultation with and under the supervision of Yenepoya University and Universidad Panamericana faculty, students may conduct research in public health or clinical projects, or participate in clinical electives or rotations, within the framework of the national regulations, as applicable. Medical students (as observers) will attend classes and practical training according to the curriculum and rules and regulations of the host University.

b. Selection of Participants

The home institution will screen its applicants for the exchange. Each institution will send the proposed students' applications at least six months prior to the start date. The host institution will determine the admission status for each exchange student applicant. Universidad Panamericana may send up to eight medical students to Yenepoya University for single rotation for up to eight weeks each year. Yenepoya University may send up to eight medical students to Universidad Panamericana for a single rotation for upto eight weeks each year.

c. Duration

Clinical rotations and electives will last for a minimum of four weeks and a maximum of eight weeks. By prior request and appropriate permission it may be extended to a maximum of twelve weeks.

d. Language proficiency

The exchange students must satisfy the language proficiency required or appropriate to their proposed experience abroad, as determined by the program coordinators at both institutions.

e. Health Insurance

To be eligible to participate in the program, all students must purchase the medical insurance required by the host institution or demonstrate to its satisfaction that medical insurance carried by or on behalf of such students is sufficient for all purposes. The costs of any health insurance required, as well as any medical expenses not covered by such insurance, shall be the personal responsibility of the student.

f. Housing

Each school will provide information to the students regarding housing, but it is the sole responsibility of the students to cover housing costs.

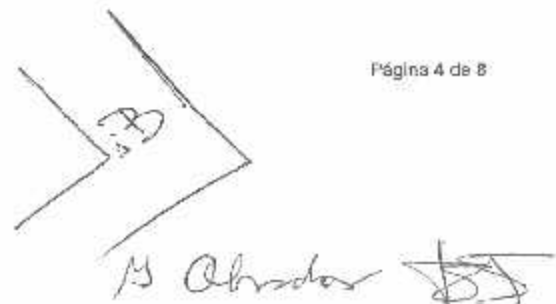

g. Transcripts and Evaluation

All students will have course evaluations sent by the host institution to the home institution. Students will receive official transcripts from their home institution. Separate arrangements must be agreed upon by both institutions regarding student participation in host institution degree programs.

h. Finances

Students must be registered and pay tuition and other required fees at their home institution. Administrative fees for applicants coming from either institution will be waived. Students will be responsible for the following:

1. Room and board expenses

Handwritten signature and initials, possibly "M. Obispo" and "S.S.", with a large stylized mark.

2. Transportation to and from the host institution
3. Text books
4. Passport and visa costs
5. Health insurance and
6. All other expenses incurred during the course of the program

V. Research Activities

Yenepoya University and Universidad Panamericana agree to collaborate on research activities. The purpose of these activities is to promote cross-institutional research joint submission of grants, which may involve students, faculty as well as medical residents and fellows.

a. Point of Contact

Each institution will appoint a Principal Investigator to oversee the collaborative research activities being conducted within each institution per grant specifications and requirements, including Institutional Review Board and Ethics Committee submissions.

b. Sponsored Research and Grants

For all research grant collaborations, participating faculty will abide by the policies, rules, and regulations in effect at both institutions and/or by any stipulations stated in the grant. This includes, but is not limited to, costs and activities related to travel, personnel, material development, procurement of supplies, and Institutional Review Board and Ethics Committee requirements.

Research grant collaborations will have separate financial guidelines and policies specific to the grant. Research grant collaborations will have separate termination and amendment guidelines and policies specific to the grant.

c. Faculty Exchange

Faculty exchanges will be for a minimum of one week and a maximum of two months unless alternative arrangements are mutually agreed upon. All the terms and conditions specified for student exchange above are applicable to faculty exchange

d. Intellectual Property

Before beginning any collaborative research or any faculty exchange in which faculty may conduct research activities at the host institution, the parties will agree, in writing, on matters relating to any intellectual property that may be developed through such research. All intellectual property owned by one of the participating institutions prior to any collaborative research or faculty exchange shall remain the exclusive property of that institution and shall not be used by another institution for its benefit except as expressly permitted by the owning institution.

e. Logos

The parties agree that they can use the brand, logo or emblem of either institution exclusively to promote the object of this agreement, however, both parties agree to stop right away, if so required by the counterparty by any means.

VI. Indemnification & Insurance

Both parties agree to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the indemnified party and any of its trustees, officers, agents and employees of and from any loss, cost, damage or expense incurred as a consequence of damage to property, personal injury or death, arising or alleged to have arisen out of or in connection with, the indemnifying party's performance of this Agreement, together with any legal and related expenses which may be incurred by the indemnified party in defending such claims, unless such loss results solely from the negligent acts or omissions of the indemnified party.

Yenepoya University and Universidad Panamericana shall provide each other with evidence, in the form of a certificate of insurance, of insurance in effect for comprehensive general liability and professional liability covering bodily injury (including death), personal injury, property damage and the allegation of professional malfeasance in the arrangement of insurance coverage pursuant to this Agreement. The insurance carrier and amounts shall be subject to approval by Universidad Panamericana and Yenepoya University, respectively, at the time of each exchange/visit.

VII. Nondiscrimination

Yenepoya University and Universidad Panamericana do not discriminate or permit discrimination by any student or member of its community against any individual on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, parental status, marital status, age, disability, citizenship, or veteran status in matters of admissions, employment, housing, or services or in the educational programs or activities it operates. Any programs developed pursuant to this MoU shall be subject to, and comply with, both parties' policy of nondiscrimination.

G. Alvarado

VIII. Legal Compliance

The host institution shall be responsible for program compliance with all applicable laws of its country, including but not limited to employment, taxation, nondiscrimination, copyright, etc. Students and faculty shall be individually responsible for compliance with any applicable immigration laws.

Personal Data. In the event that the parties, in order to give full effect to the purpose of this agreement, should come to have access to personal data which responsibility rests with the counterparty, hereby undertake to: (i) treat such personal data only for purposes development of academic collaboration, (ii) not to process personal data for purposes other than the purpose instructed by the counterparty, (iii) implement security measures under the laws of matter, (iv) maintain confidentiality regarding the personal data processed, (v) remove the personal data processed once the appropriate academic collaboration, and (vi) Refrain from transfer or communicate personal data submitted by the counterparty, except with the prior express permission writing of the latter, or the communication of data resulting from an order of the competent authority. In the latter case the disclosing party shall inform the party responsible for personal data prior to the transfer thereof to such responsible party takes the measures it deems appropriate.

IX. Force Majeure

Neither party shall be liable to the other for its failure to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement, except for payment obligations, during any period in which such performance is delayed because rendered impracticable or impossible due to circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including without limitation earthquakes, governmental regulation, fire, flood, labor difficulties, etc., provided the party promptly notifies the other party of the delay.

X. Governing Law

In the event of a dispute arising out of or related to this contract or its operation, performance or non-performance, the parties agree to make a good faith effort to amicably resolve their dispute on mutually acceptable terms via negotiation. If that should prove unsuccessful after thirty (30) days, then the parties agree to submit their dispute to non-binding mediation in a mutually agreeable location, utilizing a neutral third party mediator acceptable to both parties to attempt to facilitate a mutually acceptable settlement of the dispute.

H. Alvarado

XI. Renewal, Termination and Amendment

This agreement shall remain in force for a period of five years from the date of the last signature, with the understanding that it may be terminated by either party giving three months' advance written notice to the other party. The agreement may be extended or amended only by mutual written consent of the two parties. Such amendments, once approved in writing by both institutions, will become part of this Memorandum of Understanding.

Memorandum of Understanding Between HACETTEPE UNIVERSITY, ANKARA, TURKEY
AND YENEPOYA UNIVERSITY, MANGALORE, INDIA

In order to promote mutual cooperation and to extend mutual understanding, Hacettepe University, Ankara, Turkey and Yenepoya University, Deralakatte, Mangalore, India agree to enter into a protocol on the following articles.

I- Hacettepe University and Yenepoya University agree to cooperate on the following items, within the extent of each country's regulations and facilities.

- 1) Promotion of joint research works including exchange of faculty and research members.
- 2) Development of student exchange programs at undergraduate, master's, doctoral and post-doctoral levels and organization of programs granting dual diplomas in conformity with the legislation of both countries upon approval from the Turkish Council of Higher Education.
- 3) Exchange of academic research data and related materials.
- 4) Cooperation in publication activities or cultural activities.
- 5) Organization of joint academic and scientific activities such as conferences, seminars, symposiums and congresses.

II- Exchanges done within the joint research works shall be planned separately by taking into consideration each university facilities and conditions; the rules and procedures of the exchange program shall be determined in a separate protocol between the parties.

III- The academic exchanges described above shall be limited to legislation in force in each country and to their respective budgetary resources.

IV- This protocol shall not cause any binding financial obligation for either party.

V- Signature of this protocol shall not cause any obligation for either party to enter into any specific agreement relating to cooperation between two universities.

VI- In case that research results impacting upon matters of intellectual property rights are expected to arise in the course of collaborative projects within the scope of this protocol, the parties shall enter into an additional protocol governing the conditions regarding the treatment of intellectual property rights so arising, prior to the start of the collaborative project in question.

VII- The execution of this protocol shall be subject to the laws in force in each Parties country. The parties are responsible for obtaining the required in-house or other approvals in accordance with the legislation they are subjected to.

VIII- This protocol shall be in effect for five years following the date of signature. This protocol may be complemented or amended by the written and common consent of authorized representatives of both universities and additional protocols to this protocol. The Addenda or amendments will not be valid unless it is written and signed. The protocol may be extended for another five years by written and signed consent of the parties.

IX- Each university shall reserve the right to terminate the protocol by issuing a written notice six months in advance to the other party. In that case, on-going projects shall complete.

X- This protocol is written in Turkish and English, in four originals, all of them equal validity.

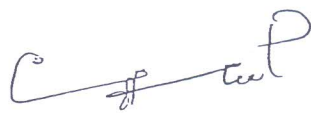

(1) This protocol shall become effective after signing by the authorized representatives of both universities.

Memorandum of Understanding

Between

Yenepoya Dental College

Dept. of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery

Yenepoya University

Mangalore – 575 018

And

Hospital Tengku Ampuan Rahimah

Dept. of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery,

Klang,

Selangor

Malaysia

This memorandum of understanding (MOU) sets down the mutually agreed broad framework for the joint research and academic activities in various fields of interest between Yenepoya Dental College & Oral And Maxillofacial surgery, Yenepoya University(YU) and Hospital Tengku Ampuan Rahimah, Dept. of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery, Klang, Selangor, Malaysia. It also incorporates the modalities of collaboration.

1. Preamble:

1.1 IAE commissioned its debut venture - the YENEPOYA DENTAL COLLEGE (YDC) in 1992. The first batch of BDS students finished their internship on August 1997 and began their careers as dental practitioners. The year 2006, marked the completion of 15 years of service as well as the celebration of its 10th Graduation day. Yenepoya (Deemed to be University) came into existence in 2008 with Yenepoya Dental College as the first constituent unit.

Currently, Postgraduate courses are recognized in all the nine departments in the Yenepoya Dental College. YDC Under Graduate & Post Graduate courses are recognized by Dental Council of India.

The Yenepoya Dental College Complex is the Campus, houses all the clinical departments along with the lecture halls, seminar rooms, HODs & Staff rooms. There are three air conditional lecture halls with excellent seating arrangement and LCD projector facilities.

There are common rooms for boys and girls separately, The departments of Community Dentistry, Conservative Dentistry, Oral Medicine, Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery, Orthodontics, Pedodontics, Periodontics & Prosthodontics also have their academic and clinical areas in the new complex. The Departments of Dental Materials (preclinical) & Oral Pathology (para clinical) are housed in the academic block of the YMC, which will be moved to the Dental College building shortly.

Every department has its own HODs room, Staff rooms, PG room, seminar rooms and the dental chairs are separately placed for undergraduate and postgraduate studies. In addition, every department has its own 35mm SLR Camera, Video camera, Over head projector, LCD projector & computer workstation. The Department of Community Dentistry has a 29 inch television for the screening of educative films and video shows.

Additionally, the YDC also has a state-of-the-art mobile dental van. The Dental Materials Department has a unique Museum of Dental Materials. The Community Dentistry Department has mobile dental clinics that are used to proactively to interact with the community.

All the treatment is rendered free or at very minimal rates. The departments conduct frequent dental camps in the rural areas surrounding Mangalore. The Dental College holds frequent Continuing Dental Education programs and guest lectures. YDC has a computer graphics department with all the latest equipment, which caters to the DTP and other needs of the Institutions.

The Central Library & Digital Information Centre, the Indoor and outdoor auditoria, the Canteen and the Examination hall are shared facilities.

Department Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery started with the mission to turn the court of this profession from being doctor centric to patient centric, it is to create a perfect environment and infrastructure that executes organizational vision and regulatory agency requirements to train students for the award of BDS and MDS in maxillofacial Surgery involving total quality management at different levels of patient care. The Dept. Of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery was established in the year 1991 with the training of undergraduate students. Then in the year 1996 the Post Graduate course was started with two students intake. Later in the year 2004 the student intake was increased to four and in 2012 the intake was to six per year. The dept. has made enormous progress under the leadership of Dr. B.H. Sripathi Rao. In the year 2010 one more feather in the form of a craniofacial centre was added to the dept. to address the craniofacial deformities of the society. The department of maxillofacial surgery not only deals with patient care and but also to train the U.G and P.G students. It has also contributed to the field of research with more than 50 papers published in last 5 years. Currently department is headed by Dr. Joyce P Sequeira who is very keen on taking the department to greater heights. Hence Institution wants to renew the MOU for faculty/student training programe.

1.2 Klang District Hospital was built in the 1890s on a hillock near the government buildings and trade. Medical Officer (District Surgeon to the Coast District) first in charge of the hospital was followed by Dr. Dr.Watson Reid

(16/01/1908 to 25/03/1908) and then Dr. Gerrard and Dr. Millard. Starting January 1, 1976, this hospital has been upgraded to the Klang General Hospital, led by a Medical Superintendent

Now the hospital provides a facility for a population of about 409,994 people especially in Klang town, rural (estates and villages), the company, the airport and the nearby islands.

The objectives of the hospital are

- Providing quality patient care through diagnostic services, treatment and early recovery of efficient, effective and customer-focused.
- Encourage innovation in services.
- Conduct research and training on an ongoing basis and focuses on the development of human capital and
- Providing a safe and comfortable environment for customers and employees.

Department of Oral & Maxillofacial surgery Hospital Tengku Ampuan Rahimah Klang is a Tertiary 1200 bedded, Ministry of Health Hospital located west of Kuala Lumpur is a state hospital and one of the busiest is the country.

The Maxillofacial surgery department is a recognized Tertiary Care centre for Maxillofacial oncology Pathology & reconstructive surgery & Maxillofacial trauma.

The department sees about 17000 patients in a year.

It is also a recognized Tertiary centre for Royal College of Surgeons of Dublin and carries out major research work in oral cancer.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

YENEPOYA UNIVERSITY, MANGALORE, INDIA

AND

DUQUESNE UNIVERSITY, PITTSBURGH, U.S.A.

The YENEPOYA UNIVERSITY, MANGALORE, INDIA represented by its Registrar Dr. JANARDHANA KONAJE and DUQUESNE UNIVERSITY represented by its Provost Dr RALPH PEARSON, hereinafter referred to as "the parties", considering that academic cooperation is fundamental to the development of both Institutions, enter into an agreement of cooperation to establish programs of exchange and collaboration in areas of mutual interest and benefit to both institutions. Based on principles of equity and reciprocity, this agreement will serve as a general framework for cooperation between the two institutions and is intended to facilitate discussions for more specific programs of collaboration. In particular, the two institutions-

AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING:

ARTICLE 1. GENERAL AREAS OF COOPERATION.

Collaboration will be developed in the following areas:

1. Exchange of students, faculty and research staff, particularly in the domain of healthcare ethics and bioethics;
2. Establishment of programs that will enable interested and qualified students and university personnel to pursue either short-term or extended programs of study in each other's institution;
3. Assistance of visits by authorized officials from each institution for the purpose of studying the other's educational system to develop mechanisms for, and expand areas of, cooperation;
4. Support the development of joint research programs and projects in fields of mutual interest, especially in the area of bioethics;
5. Identification of other areas of possible interest and collaboration; and,
6. Awareness in both institutions of the teaching and research programs, research institutes and educational resources of each other's institution.

ARTICLE 2. FINANCIAL ISSUES. The scope of activities under this agreement shall be determined by funds regularly available at both institutions for the types of collaboration undertaken and by such other financial assistance as may be obtained by either institution from external sources.

ARTICLE 3. DURATION OF THE AGREEMENT.

Upon approval by each institution, this agreement will remain in force until terminated by either institution. An evaluation of this agreement will take place two years after the date of signature. Either institution may terminate this agreement by giving the other at least six months advance notice of its intention to terminate. Termination shall be without penalty.

ARTICLE 4. SUPERVISION OF THE AGREEMENT. A designated person at each institution shall oversee and facilitate implementation of this agreement in collaboration with other appropriate staff at the respective institutions.

ARTICLE 5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY. Each Institution is the owner of certain intellectual property in respect of the creations of the students and/or professors.

PARTNERSHIP STATEMENT

Partnership title: ...LET'S MOVE TOGETHER.....(MOVER).....

Coordinating institution:UNIVERSITY OF MURCIA.....

A partnership is a relationship of substance between two or more organisations involving shared responsibilities in undertaking the action funded by the Education, Audiovisual and Culture Executive Agency (herein after referred to as "Agency") Agency. To ensure that the action runs smoothly, the Agency requires all partners to acknowledge this by agreeing to the principles of good partnership practice set out below.

1. All partners must have read the application form and understood what their role in the action will be before the application is submitted to the Agency.
2. All partners must have read the model of grant agreement and understood what their respective obligations under the agreement will be if the grant is awarded. They authorise the lead applicant to sign the agreement with the Agency and represent them in all dealings with the Agency in the context of the action's implementation.
3. The applicant must consult with his partners regularly and keep them fully informed of the progress of the action.
4. All partners must receive copies of the reports - narrative and financial - made to the Agency.
5. Proposals for substantial changes to the action (e.g. activities, partners, etc.) should be agreed by the partners before being submitted to the Agency. Where no such agreement can be reached, the applicant must indicate this when submitting changes for approval to the Agency.

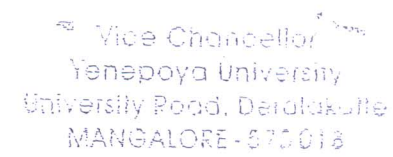

Given the objectives of the action, I agree

- ✓ to the recognition of the periods of study undertaken by the students from my university in the partner universities.
- ✓ to apply a fee waiver policy for incoming students from the partner institutions who follow study in my institution if duration of study period is inferior to 10 months.
- ✓ to the recognition for the purposes of studying of the previous studies carried out by third country nationals under target groups II and III (for EMA2 Strand1)

I declare by my honour the following:

- ✓ I grant power of attorney to the Applicant/Coordinating institution to sign the present application in my name and for my account.
I do not fall in any of the categories (a) to (f) listed in section 3.2 of the Programme Guide.
- ✓ I will not favour any actions that could lead to brain drain from third countries and will do everything in their power so that mobility activities contribute to building capacity in third countries, to increasing the relations and improving the understanding between the different peoples involved.

I have read and approved the contents of the proposal submitted to the Agency. I undertake to comply with the principles of good partnership practice.
