Report of the sensitization program on Code of conduct
July 2019

Every stakeholder in the University, whether working in the administrative post, teaching or non-teaching staff or a student should be well aware and conversant with the Code of Conduct, which gives general guidelines on how any stakeholder in the University should conduct himself/herself. The University Code of Conduct committee decided in its meeting held on 13 July 2019 that a sensitisation program must be conducted for the stakeholders. It was decided that Dr. Uma Kulkarni, who is a Professor in Ophthalmology and also a faculty at the Centre for Ethics, should conduct the sensitisation program. Every college nominated representatives to attend the sensitization program which was held in the month of July 2019 in Lecture hall 3 of the Yenepoya Medical College. More than 20 representatives from all the constituent colleges of the University attended the program.

List of faculty members deputed from various institutions to attend the sensitization program.

Dr. Uma Kulkarni spoke on the following topics:

1. Introduction to Code of Conduct of Yenepoya deemed to be University and its location in the Bye-laws.
2. Location of 'moral values and professional ethics' in the foundation of the Code of Conduct
3. Code of conduct for Teachers
4. Misconduct for Teachers
5. Code of conduct for Administrative staff including Misconduct
6. Code of conduct for students

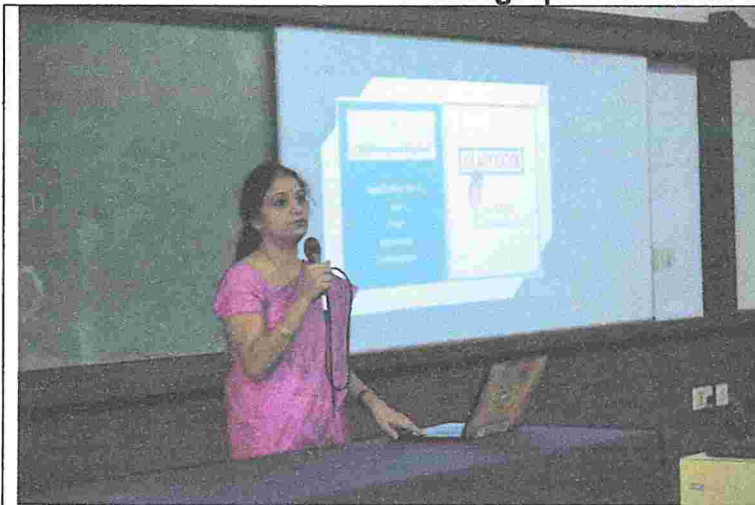

The program was interactive with the college representatives enquiring more about how to report, whom to report and other details. A list of committees constituted in the University for various aspects of ensuring code of conduct and managing misconduct was listed (Student welfare committee, anti-ragging committee, internal complaints committee, women's grievance committee and the ethics committee)

A copy of the presentation made by Dr. Uma Kulkarni and the Code of Conduct document was shared with the college representatives for dissemination among the administrative, teaching and non-teaching faculty and students. The copy of the Code of Conduct is made available in the website for all the stakeholders.
