

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF FORESTS

International Day of Forests was celebrated on 21.03.2016 at Yenepoya University. The day was observed by planting saplings of Sterculia foetida L. near Yen-Soccer ground by Dr. M. Vijaya Kumar Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Prof. M. Abdul Rahiman Former Vice Chancellor of Kannur and Calicut Universities, Dr. C. V Raghuvier Registrar, Mr. Mahammed Bawa Finance Officer, Dr. Ghulam Jeelani Qadiri Dean Yenepoya Medical College, Dr. Sripathi Rao Dean Yenepoya Dental College, Dr. Asha P Shetty Dean Yenepoya Nursing College and Prof. Padmakumar Dean Yenepoya Physiotherapy College.

'International day for Biological Diversity' at Yenepoya University

The 'International Day for Biological Diversity' was celebrated jointly by the Centre for Environmental Studies and Yenepoya Nursing College on May 26th 2016. 'NUTRIYEN' an exhibition on cereals and pulses was organized. Dr. M. Vijayakumar, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Yenepoya University inaugurated the exhibition. About 58 varieties of edible seeds were displayed along with their nutritive values. 20 varieties of exotic fruit species were also exhibited. The students from Nursing college displayed charts on nutritive value of seeds and demonstrated house hold testing of adulterants in common foods. Dr. C. V. Raghuvier, Registrar, Yenepoya University, Prof. M. Abdul Rahiman, Former Vice Chancellor, Kannur & Calicut Universities, Dr. Sreekumar Menon, Additional Registrar, Mr. Mahammad Bava P, Finance Officer and Dr. Asha P. Shetty, Principal, Yenepoya Nursing College, staff & students attended the programme.

Vanamahotsava at Yenepoya University

Centre for Environmental Studies celebrated Vanamahotsava on 09.07.2016 and 12.07.2016 by planting saplings by the staff and students. Registrar Dr. C. V. Raghuvier, additional registrar Dr. G. Shreekumar Menon and faculty of the centre for environmental studies planted saplings of Indian rosewood, chanpak and wild jack in the campus. Students sowed the seeds of vegetables and started the vegetable garden for this year. Seeds of brinjal, lady's finger, cowpea, chilly were sowed. A total of 308 species of plants are maintained in the campus. Horticulture assistant Mr. Vasanth was appreciated for his efforts in making YU a green campus by registrar Dr. Raghuvier.

Ozone and Environment

Dr. H. Jayantha

Retired Professor, Dept. of Chemistry, St. Agnes College, Mangaluru

06.09.2016

The speaker gave the description on the formation of ozone, sources of ozone, ozone layer depletion, effects and methods to combat the situation.

“National Energy Conservation Day” on 17th December 2016 at Yenepoya University, Mangaluru

Centre for Environmental Studies of Yenepoya University Mangaluru organized the “National Energy Conservation Day” on 17th Dec. 2016. Prof. S. Shrihari, Professor at Department of Civil engineering, NITK, Suratkal delivered a lecture on ‘Energy conservation and resources’ on this occasion. He stressed about the importance of energy as well as necessity to conserve energy resources to save it for future.

Painting Competition

The Eco club of the University organized a painting competition on the topic ‘Swachh Bharat’ for the students of Government High School, Manchi, Kukkaje. An online contest to collect ideas/solutions for clean and green India was held for staffs and students of Yenepoya University. Prof. Abdul Rahiman, Assistant Registrar of Yenepoya University and Prof. Shrihari distributed prizes to the winners on this occasion. Dr. Bhagya B. Sharma, Assistant Director, Centre for Environmental Studies, organized the programme and delivered the vote of thanks.

